

77th Independence Day Celebrated by DPA

Amid holiday mood and political fervour Delhi Printers' Association proudly celebrated India's 77th Independence Day by hoisting the National flag on the terrace of its office on 15th August 2023. The office and the venue were decorated with colourful balloons, flags and flowers.

A large number of association's Executive body members, former Presidents and guests had assembled to witness and join the celebration. They clapped when the President Mr. Prakash Dass and Hon. General Secretary Mr. Puneet Talwar hoisted the flag and joined others in singing the National anthem. With great enthusiasm everyone chanted "Vande Mataram" and "Bharat Mata Ki Jai".

On behalf of Former Presidents, Mr. Arun Berry addressed the participants by stressing on the importance of 'freedom from the mindset of slavery' of the colonial era. For the upliftment of the printing industry he exhorted everybody to endeavour to achieve boundless success in every field. Mr. Berry emphasized the vital role the Ministry of MSME plays in the national development. He suggested making use of the economical benefits which various schemes of the Ministry provide to needy industries including Printing.

Mr. Mukesh Kaushik hailed the efforts of the office bearers, especially President Mr. Prakash Dass for organising the event so meticulously and successfully. He also appreciated the office staff for their hard work.

Mr. Prakash Dass hailed the sacrifices made by thousands of freedom fighters and reminded about the loss of innumerable lives of Defence personnel for the achievement of India's freedom.

Further, Mr. Dass thanked his colleagues and well-wishers for coming to attend the function.

The event ended with a delicious lunch.
