Delhi Printers' Association

1. The name of the Association is and shall be DELHI PRINTERS' ASSOCIATION.
2. The registered office of the Association shall situate in the Union Territory of Delhi.
3. The OBJECTS for which the Association is established are:
  - (i) To promote, aid, help and develop the art, craft, management of printing and graphic arts industry in their various branches without any profit.
  - (ii) To establish institutes/schools of learning for general public utility to impart training facilities in printing, composing, block making, ruling, graining, the graphic arts etc. for the general public who wish to gain skills so as to provide gainful employment to the masses.
  - (iii) To collect, secure and circulate information in all matters relating to the printing industry and allied trades, and to improve technical knowledge of all concerned in the industry by establishing apprenticeship schemes, running institutions for study, research, training and, demonstration of new techniques and methods and to hold exhibitions, conferences, conventions, seminars and workshops and to establish museums and libraries.
  - (iv) To publish books, magazines, periodicals and other literature and to arrange radio and television broadcasts for achievement of objects mentioned in clause (iii).
  - (v) To buy and sell or otherwise acquire lands, buildings, or other properties, movable and immovable, and commodities and construct buildings required for the purpose of the Association.

- (vi) To improve the conditions of the working in general and as a whole by opening and running welfare centres to provide vocational aids without discriminating for caste, creed and religion.
- (vii) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Association upon bonds, debentures, letters of exchange, promissory notes or by charging the property of the Association and invest and deal with the funds of the Association, not immediately required in such manner and as may, from time to time be determined.
- (viii) To make, accept, endorse and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments.
- (ix) To aid or receive aid from any other Associations promoting or formed to promote any of the above objects and to subscribe to any association with a view to obtain any other advantages or benefits for the purpose of the Association.
- (x) To receive aid, grants from the Government, Statutory bodies, Trusts, Firms or Individuals to promote the objectives of the Association.
- (xi) And generally to do such other or similar acts which may be deemed necessary for the achievement of the above objects

In order to remove any ambiguity it is clarified that the above objects of the Association are with a view to afford to the public, the benefits arising from the ensuing researches for improved technical knowledge of the industry which will also be with an aim to bring reduction in the prices and cost of printing.

The above amendments are of a clarificatory nature and have been made to define the objects more elaborately and to bring out the fact that the Association is not a private one but a public one, and for the benefits of public which were the real aims at the time of the formation of the Association.

The above amendments will be deemed to have taken place retrospectively, i.e. from the date of formation of the Association and will always be deemed to be part of the objects.

14. (C) The Executive Committee shall be empowered to withdraw the nomination from General Body/Governing Council of any member at any time.

15. The Executive Committee shall hold office only until the next Annual General Meeting but shall continue in office till new Committee is duly elected. Re-election to the post of the Office Bearers shall be consecutively for two terms only, at one time. The Annual General Meeting should be held on yearly basis.

16. The property, funds, proceedings and affairs of the Association shall be managed by the Executive Committee who may exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Association and as are not, by these Rules or by any Law or Act, expressly directed or required to be exercised or done by the Association in a General Meeting.

17. The Executive Committee may meet for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings as it thinks fit. The members of the Committee for the time being may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body..

18. The President or any ten members of the Executive Committee may at any time summon a special meeting of the Committee by giving at least 10 days notice. The quorum for such a meeting of the Committee shall be two-third of its total strength

19. The Executive Committee may delegate any of its powers and/or discretions to sub-committees appointed from time to time by the Committee, and frame rules and regulations for conduct of such sub-committees and to alter them from time to time.

20. (i) A meeting of the Executive Committee shall be held at least once every month. The quorum of the meeting will be one third of its total strength.

- (ii) A member who fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the Committee without any valid reason shall vacate his office. In place of such members, the Executive Committee may nominate new members for the remaining term.
21. Members of the Executive Committee shall be elected in their personal capacity and not as a representative of any ordinary member of the Association. In case a member of the committee who is not an ordinary member of the Association in his personal name and represents a firm or company, ceases to have any connection with that member firm or company, he shall vacate his office as a member of the Executive Committee.

22. Arbitration

- (i) Delhi Printers' Association shall provide secretarial and administrative services for amicable and quick settlement of disputes through arbitration between (i) Members of the Association and (ii) between members and non-members, in the course of their business dealings.
- (ii) The arbitration services of the association shall be carried out as hereinafter provided in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 as amended from time to time.
- (iii) The Executive Committee shall maintain a Panel of Arbitrators including persons of high integrity with appropriate background and experience in arbitration.

The panel of Arbitrators shall be updated from time to time. The Executive Committee may add the names of any new persons on the Panel or it may delete the name of any existing person at any time without assigning any reason.

- (iv) For making use of the facility of arbitration for settlement of disputes and for availing of the Association's services in this regard, members of the DPA are advised to print/use an arbitration clause to the following effect on their Invoice/Bill forms /Contract etc.

"In case of any dispute arising in respect of this Bill/Contract etc., the same shall be referred for arbitration to the appointed by the Executive Committee of the Delhi Printers' Association as per its Rules and the award made by such arbitrator/s shall be final and binding on the parties."

23. Settlement of Disputes

- (i) Any party desirous to have its disputes settled by arbitration through the Association shall send a written request for the purpose to the Association.
- (ii) On receipt of a request for arbitration as above, the Executive Committee of the Association shall consider it promptly. If the Committee is satisfied that the request for arbitration is valid and acceptable according Rule 19 it shall accept such request and if the Committee is not so satisfied, it shall reject the request.
- (iii) The Secretary of the Association shall communicate the decision of the Committee on the request for arbitration to the party who had made the request and also to all other parties to the dispute had made the request and also to all other parties to the dispute named in the request for arbitration, promptly. If any questions are raised by any of the parties to the dispute regarding the decision of the Committee on the request for arbitration, such questions shall also be finally settled by the Committee.
- (iv) In case the request for arbitration has been accepted, the Committee shall appoint a suitable person from the Panel as arbitrator to decide the dispute, promptly. The Secretary shall also inform the person appointed as arbitrator about his appointment and shall also obtain his consent in this regard. If the person so appointed is not available for any reason, the committee shall appoint another suitable person for the purpose, whose consent shall be similarly obtained.
- (v) If all the parties to the dispute jointly request the Committee that in addition to the arbitrator appointed by the Committee, each of the parties may be also allowed to nominate an arbitrator each from the Panel to form a tribunal of three arbitrators for settlement of the dispute, the Committee may allow such request in its discretion, if it deems fit, in any particular case. In such cases, the arbitrator appointed by the Committee shall act as chairman of the tribunal.
- (vi) The arbitrator/arbitration tribunal shall formulate appropriate rules and guidelines for fixing the costs and expenses of arbitration including arbitrator's remuneration and regarding advance deposits etc. from the parties for meeting such costs and expenses. This will be done by the arbitrator at the commencement of the arbitration proceedings, in consultation with the parties.

The Association shall organise or assist in organising all necessary arrangements for the arbitration proceedings according to the directions of the hon'ble arbitrator/arbitral tribunal, under the overall supervision and control of the Committee.

24. Annual General Meeting

So who is not a member is not qualified to be nominated as a candidate for the post of Executive Member or Office Bearer. The candidate should have remained as a member of DPA for at least one year.

- (f) A member shall be eligible to file nomination paper for the post of one Office Bearer only. He can, however, file nomination paper for membership of the Executive Committee also in addition to one post of Office Bearer. Only the proprietor, partner, director, legal heir as certified by the ordinary member firm shall be eligible to contest election for any post to the Executive Committee. No other representative of the ordinary member firm shall be entitled to be the Executive Committee Member/Office Bearer.

- (g) Nomination paper duly completed by a candidate shall be submitted to the Returning Officer in a closed cover superscribed with words "Nomination Papers".
- (h) A deposit of Rs. 500/- paid in cash or through bank draft shall be submitted with each nomination paper by the candidates contesting for any post in the annual election. Deposit shall be forfeited if the candidate is unable to secure 20% of the total votes polled.
- (i) Deposit shall be refunded to the candidates obtaining 20% or above of the total votes polled and also to candidates who withdraw their nomination papers by the date and time specified for the purpose in the election notice.
- (j) Candidates, their representatives or any other member of the Association may be present at the time of scrutiny of nomination papers. Attendance of the persons present shall be noted.
- (k) Final list of candidates eligible for election drawn after the expiry of the date of withdrawals, shall be circulated a week prior to the actual date of election.
- (l) On the election date ballot paper signed by the Returning Officer shall be issued to a voter against his signature.
- (m) Ballot papers shall be cast in sealed ballot boxes kept in election premises in front of the Returning Officer.
- (n) Counting of votes shall be undertaken on the date of election or on the following date. Attendance of persons present at the counting process shall be recorded.
- (o) The names of successful Office Bearers who may simultaneously be elected to the Executive Committee shall be removed from the list of elected Executive Committee Members. The consequent vacancies shall be filled in by the members who may have polled next highest number of votes.
- (p) The Returning Officer shall announce the names of successful candidates immediately after the counting is concluded. The list shall thereafter be circulated to all members of the Association and also displayed at Association Office.

- (q) Disputes or any petition against the election results, received by the Returning Officer within 24 hours of the official declaration of the result, shall stand referred to an Election Commission comprising Returning Officer and two scrutinisers (other than candidates) appointed by the Executive Committee. The judgement of the Commission shall be final.

26. Ordinary General Meeting

A general meeting of the Association may be called by the Executive Committee at any time and the Hon'y. General Secretary shall also call a general meeting on the requisition of at least one-third of the total membership of the Association. Notice of every general meeting shall be given to all the members of the Association and sent to their registered addresses not less than 21 days before the date of the meeting. But under special circumstances the Executive Committee is empowered to call such a meeting at a shorter notice of not less than 7 days. Accidental omission to give notice or non-receipt of notice posted under postal certificate/franking machine by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings of any meeting.

- 27. One-fifty or 60 whichever is less of the total strength of the registered ordinary membership of the Association, shall form quorum for a General Meeting of the Association.
- 28. If within half an hour from the time appointed for any meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting, if called upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved and in any other case it shall stand adjourned to a day and time as the Chairman may decide and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present, the members who are present shall constitute a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was called except meetings called under Clause 38.
- 29. Every ordinary member present in the meeting shall have one vote. The Chairman shall have a casting vote in addition to his own vote. Associate or Honorary members or Individual members shall not have any vote.

30. The President of the Association shall be the Chairman of every general meeting. In his absence the chair shall be taken by either of the 3 vice presidents. In case the president and the 3 Vice presidents are absent, the members present shall elect one of their members to be the Chairman of the meeting.
31. Any decision at a general meeting shall be taken by the majority of votes.
32. The Chairman shall have power to adjourn any meeting from time to time and place to place. The ruling of the chairman at any general meeting on any point of order shall be final and binding.

ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

33. The accounts of the Association shall be maintained by the Treasurer of the Association under the control and supervision of the Executive Committee. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to present a quarterly statement of accounts to the Executive Committee. In case the Treasurer fails, without any valid reason, to present the accounts of two consecutive quarters, he shall vacate his office. The accounting year of the Association shall be from 1st April to 31st March.
34. The powers, duties, rights and privileges of the auditors shall be the same as provided in the Companies Act, 1956, with such modifications, however, as may be determined by the Association in a general meeting.
35. All monies of the Association shall be deposited in a bank or banks chosen by the Executive Committee. The Secretary and/or Treasurer may, however, keep a sum not exceeding Rs. 10,000/- with them for day-to-day expenses. All payments exceeding Rs. 10,000/- in amount shall require the approval of the Executive Committee. Payment shall be made preferably by cheques.
36. Unless otherwise determined by the Association in a general meeting the banking account of the Association shall be operated by the Treasurer jointly with the President or the Honorary General Secretary.

37. Subject to such rules as may be framed for the purpose by the Executive Committee, the books of accounts and register of members of the Association shall be open to inspection by any ordinary member of Association.

AMENDMENTS

38. The provisions of these Rules and Regulations, Memorandum of Association may be amended, altered or deleted by two third majority of members present at a Special General Meeting of the Association called specifically for the purpose by a notice of at least 30 days.

DISSOLUTION

39. The income and the property of the Association shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Association and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise to the Members of the Association, provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the payment in good faith of remuneration to any person in return for services rendered to the Association. provided further that no member shall be appointed to any salaried office of the Association and that no remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth shall be given by the Association to any of its members except repayment of out of pocket expenses, interest on money lent, reasonable rent for premises let or goods supplied to the Association.
40. In case of the winding up or dissolution of the Association, if there remain, after the satisfaction of all debts and liabilities, any property or assets, the same shall not be distributed amongst the members but shall be given or transferred to such other Association having objects similar to the objects of this Association to be determined by two-third majority of the members present in a general meeting specifically called for this purpose, failing that by the High Court having jurisdiction in the matter.

41. General :

(i) The provisions of the Societies Registration Act (XXI of 1860) will be applicable to determine the relation between the Association and its members and third parties. For which no specific provision is made in these Rules and Regulations, the provision of the Societies Registration Act (XXI of 1860) will be followed.

(ii) The Association may sue or be sued in the name of the President.

The Memorandum of Association and Rules and Regulations contained herein which were passed and confirmed to the provisions of the law have been filed with Registrar of the Societies under the signature of the following members of the General Body 2017-2018.
